Stay alert

April 29, 2025 at 10:59 AM

While the recent low in B period is weak, it is only a single data point.

Value is developing as overlapping to higher.

The market is one timeframing higher from the low. While still within yesterday's range,keep an open mind.

Years ago, on the floor, we said days like today were floor traders picking each other's pockets.

Can the market hold the double dist.

April 29, 2025 at 01:50 PM

Holding the double dist. would represent short-term strength.

Closing the double dist. and trading back to the unchanged level would suggest weakness.
